The League of Women Voters of Ridgefield

Overview:

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan grassroots organization that encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

Mission:

Established nationally in 1920, the League is committed to educating, protecting and engaging voters. In Ridgefield, our activities focus on providing educational and issue-oriented presentations and programs for Ridgefielders including our student and elderly population. These activities include voter registration drives and absentee ballot information sessions in Town, at senior facilities and the high school; local and federal candidate forums; candidate assemblies and mock elections at the high school; voter education programs like "Get To Know Your Town" meetings with Town Boards and Commissions and "Town Government at a

From the drop-down menu below, please select three questions you would like to answer about your charity.

Question 1: What makes your charity special?

As a nonpartisan organization the League seeks to make our electoral system better by engaging and registering voters and protecting their right to vote. We educate and inform citizens about important local, state and national issues and how our government works. We help bring positive, lasting change

Question 2: Share one of your best success stories.

Expanded voter outreach to students through our voter registration, candidates assemblies and mock elections at the high school as well as our "Ridgefield Votes" a social media program and Facebook page that provides them information about voter registration, absentee balloting and deadlines reaching

Question 3: Why should someone donate to your organization?

Donating to the Ridgefield League of Women Voters would enable us to expand our voter outreach and registration programs, host more candidates forums and debates, and convene programs on issues of local, state and national concern providing unbiased, understandable and complete information

Individual contributions are always welcome!
